IT'S C.H.S., BOYS

(Tune: Hail West Virginia, Music by Earl Miller '15 and Ed. McWhorther '16)

It's C. H. boys, It's C. H. S. girls, The pride of every-one that's here. Come on ye young lads, Come on ye old grads, For dear ole C. H. S. we'll cheer. Rah! Rah! There is a time, boys, To make a big noise, No mat-ter what the peo- ple say; For there's e-nough to cheer, The gang's all here, So hail to C. H. S., all hail!

CREWE HIGH SCHOOL
CREWE, VIRGINIA

VOLUME VI

LET'S GIVE A RAH! FOR C. H. S. BOYS!

Our ability is small, our limitations many, but in this volume of The Railroader, we have striven to store the events, scenes, and friendships of our eleven short years here, so that in after years in glancing through this book, we may recall pleasant memories of Crewe High School, and refresh ourselves anew with the persons and things whom we learned to love while here.

In making the school song the theme, we hope this volume of The Railroader will always be dear to the hearts of Crewe graduates.

THESE CHANGES GREETED US IN SEPTEMBER

A bicycle rack had been installed.

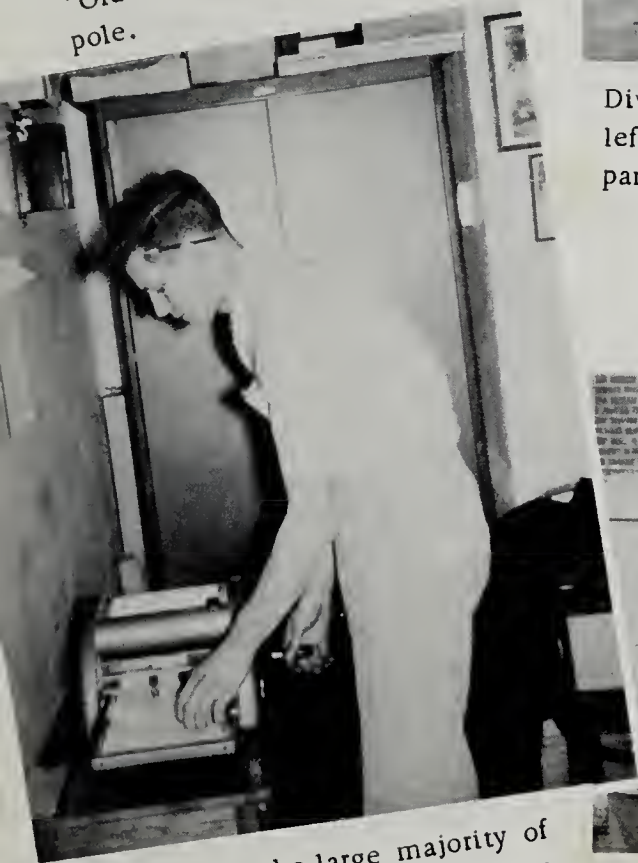

"Old Glory" floated from a shortened pole.

Division Superintendent Reid left us to join the State Department of Education.

The "old building" had become a primary building exclusively, with the second grades taking over all three rooms on the second floor.

In keeping with the large majority of male students in high school, George became the "office boy."

Seventh Grade Safety Patrol boys organized to watch over the younger children.

Mary Ann and Ruth Bryan took over the mimeographing of Trailblazers.

Let All Our Troubles Be Forgotten

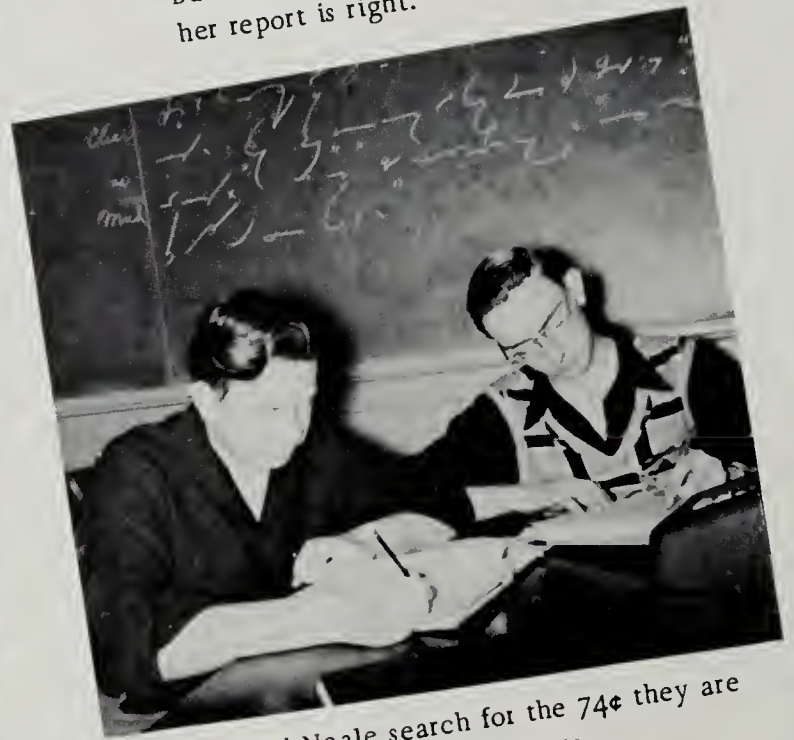

Decoration troubles are forgotten as soon as the orchestra tunes up for the Grand March at Junior-Senior.

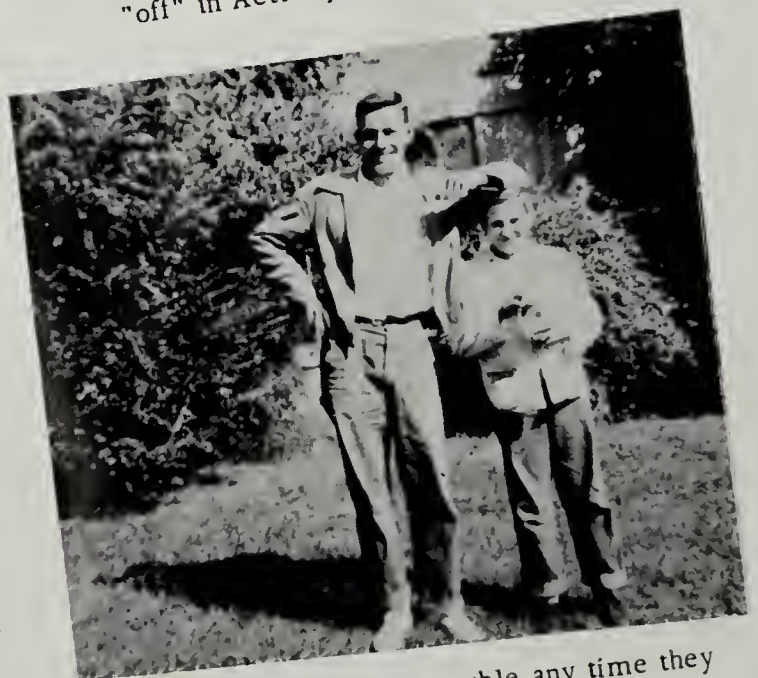

Barbara counts Cafeteria pennies to make sure her report is right.

All the practice troubles of "Lunatics at Large" are forgotten in the glow of satisfaction over a good performance--shooting and all.

Bobby and Neale search for the 74¢ they are "off" in Activity Fund Accounts.

George and Dick spell trouble any time they are together.

"Beville's Beauties" are glad to forget such troubles as these.

Mary Lee's troubles were all in her feet!

Spring rains kept phys. ed. classes in, and caused the ice cream truck to sink fender-deep in mud.

First period study suggest one way of keeping out of trouble in the Library.

Ann and Genevia hope never again to have to polish so many size 11's.

Seniors hope to remember Eng. IV lessons long enough to pass this troublesome exam.

Just enough snow for a good snowballs spells trouble for window panes,

Many troubles are forgotten at Crit's.

This year, we, as members of The Railroader Staff, have endeavored to put into pictures our school song. Through these pictures we hope to bring back to you in later years the memories of our school days at C. H. S.

This volume of The Railroader is not just one or two person's work but the combined efforts of every member of the Staff and its advisers, Mrs. Hagberg and Miss Fitzgerald, whose untiring efforts we shall never forget. We would give special credit to Photographer Francis Reid who took a great many of the pictures before he left for the Service. And to Kay Crittenden, 1951 Railroader Editor, we are especially grateful--for the credits accruing from her book, as well as the many excellent pictures she herself took for us.

And now as this school year ends, we bid farewell to the many true, staunch friends we have made here. In the years to come may we leisurely review good times and happy days of 1951-52 through this edition of our Railroader.

STAFF REVIEWS BETA CLUB HISTORY IN CREWE HIGH

The Crewe Beta Club, organized by Mr. Harwood in 1945, received its charter January 23, 1946. The Club started with fourteen members under the sponsorship of Miss Mary Janet Smith.

The next year with Mrs. Lucille Hodnett as their sponsor, the sixteen Beta Club members presented a special program for assembly and sent ten delegates to the State Beta Convention.

In 1948, the Beta Club had increased in number to twenty-one. That year Mrs. Hutcherson became its sponsor. The members prepared boxes for school children in war devastated countries, gave an assembly program, and again sent delegates to the State Convention.

Similar activities were engaged in during the 1949 term. A Queen of Hearts program high-lighted the 1950 activities.

The major activity of 1951 and 1952 has been to publish The Trailblazer, the Crewe High School newspaper. In 1951, the Club gave a mimeoscope to the Business Education Department, for use in mimeographing the paper.

Although the membership of the Club is small this year due partly to the decrease in enrollment in high school and the small Senior Class, the boys outnumber the girls for the first time in the history of the Club in Crewe High.

The Beta Club hopes to become a banner member of National Beta this year and have it's picture in the Journal. Both S.I.P.A. and Beta Conventions are being held at the same time, so it will be necessary for members to choose according to their interest.

IMPROVEMENTS MADE IN COVERAGE AND FORM OF CURRENT TRAILBLAZER

C. H. S. students approve the new one-page (front and back) Trailblazer being published each Friday as news coverage has been better and more up-to-the-minute.

In previous years, The Trailblazer consisted of several pages, published every other Friday, for which the students paid five cents.

In September, 1951, in keeping with suggestions received at S.I.P.A., The Trailblazer took the new form and arrangements were made whereby the cost of paper could be paid for out of Activity Fees and each student in the eighth grade and high school given a copy.

Any Home Economics student is eligible to become a member of the Crewe Chapter of the Future Homemakers of America. Their colors, RED and WHITE, are a symbol of youth and home life. The club's motto, "Toward New Horizons," expresses the purpose of the organization--to better themselves and their families and friends in the future. The red rose, the organization's flower, stands for vibrant, glowing health. The Crewe Chapter is a member of the Longwood Federation.

The Best Picture Of Our Best Glee Club !

Ever since the first group picture of Crewe's Glee Club was made in 1947, the photographer has sought to get a good picture of the Club. Whether the singers in this picture were more photogenic, or the photographer more skilled, is a matter of conjecture. At any rate, this large, handsome group "looks" good and sounds good, too.

Part of the improvement is due to the fact that Crewe and Burkeville each have more time for music; Miss Johns spends three days of each week in Crewe and two in Burkeville. The Club meets as a regular class with the members receiving grades, and being asked to present an excuse for any absence. To those who qualify, one-half credit will be given. This makes the work of the Club much more interesting and purposeful.

The type of music studied has also changed since the first Glee Club was organized in 1944. Arrangements by such famous Band and Glee Club leaders as Fred Waring form a large part of the music studied. The December P. T. A. meeting was made more enjoyable by several numbers sung by the Glee Club. The Christmas Concert this year was excellent, though the size of the audience was a keen disappointment to the Club. Old Man Winter brought out one of his worst performances in competition.

It is hoped that the spring concert will not be hampered by the forces of nature. The Glee Club itself is hard at work on its part of the performance.

With the arrival of our Sophomore year came a new teacher also, Miss Thrift. She took over the task of training our errant behavior as Miss Coleman felt she lacked courage to face us another year.

Now as we start on our third year as Juniors we start with our fourth teacher, Mrs. Cheatham. During the short time we have been in school this year our classmates have occupied most of the positions on the football team and the clubs we have here in school. We have had our magazine sales campaign and have raised the money for our Banquet and Dance.

The Junior play was presented on December 14, 1951 at the Crewe High Auditorium. The Junior and Senior classes traveled to Victoria this year where the annual Career Day was held. Many representatives were there from many colleges as well as the Armed Forces, and we all feel sure that these contacts helped us greatly in planning our vocations.

During the rest of this year and all of the next we will try to uphold our school and prepare ourselves for college or any work which we plan to do.

COME ON, YE YOUNG LADS,

THIS IS CREWE'S FIRST EIGHTH GRADE!

That's right! We are not trying to be funny! It is true that in the past some have been referred to as "eighth graders," but in reality they were Freshmen in High School.

Early last spring, the Nottoway County School Board voted to adopt the long-debated 12-year school plan. This plan had been talked about in the Crewe P.T.A. meetings for several years, but the announcement of the adoption came as a blow to these students who had expected to be full-fledged Freshmen in the 1951-52 term. Some were happy, some were sad; and all were curious to know just how the new system would work.

"Work" seems to be the key-word in the program. Each Eighth Grade student takes English, Math, Science, Social Studies, Physical Education, and during the sixth period alternates in Glee Club, Library Science, Home Economics and Shop. (The girls really enjoy the time spent in Shop class.)

The Eighth Grade reports to two homerooms: the girls to Miss Simpkins in Room 316, and the boys to Mr. Cheatham, in Room 305.

This, then, is a famous class, the Class of '56--the first class in the history of Crewe High to receive twelve years of preparation in school.

COME ON YE OLD GRADS

Just as these engines furnish Crewe's chief industry with its power, so the parents and "old grads" of Crewe High School, with their unfailing interest and backing, make possible many worthwhile projects such as THE RAILROADER. The student body salutes merchants and friends of Crewe High.
